God has a lot of things to say about me:

1. I'm a child, I am free, I'm a saint, I'm a tree...
2. I'm a friend, I'm a rock, I'm a lamb in the flock...
3. I'm a star in the sky, I'm a treasure, I am wise...
4. I'm a prize, I'm a chicken, I'm a fish, I go fishin'...

God has a lot of things to say about me.

Worship Notes: Rev. Dr. Patricia L. Hunter has served SFBC for the last seven years in multiple capacities. First, she served as an interim member of the pastoral team in 2015-2016. Then, she served as the Theologian in Residence, a position started by Bill Malcomson. In 2019, she agreed to serve as our Pastor of Education and Outreach. Dr. Hunter's gifts are many—prophetic preaching, wise counsel, courageous and loving pastoral care. During the COVID-19 pandemic, Dr. Hunter led the church in establishing the Tuesday Prayer Group on Zoom, a fellowship that is flourishing to this day. Dr. Hunter retired from the Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board (MMBB) of the American Baptist Churches USA in 2020. Following her Master of Divinity from Colgate Rochester Crozer Divinity School, she received her Doctor of Ministry degree from Saint Paul School of Theology in Kansas City, Missouri, with a specialization in Womanist Theology and Evangelism. Dr. Hunter also serves on the ministry team at Mount Zion Baptist Church. Dr. Hunter, we wish you all the best as you follow God's call to ministry in new ways and new places. Seattle First Baptist Church is endlessly grateful for your ministry among us. Thank you.
